25X1 15. [ ] Delivered to Frank Slatinshek, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, a set of the letters and notes discussed earlier with Chairman Nedzi, Intelligence Subcommittee, in the meeting with Jack Maury and Howard Osborn, D/S. After checking with the Chairman, an Intelligence Subcommittee meeting was scheduled for Thursday, 24 May 1973, at 10:00 a.m. in room 2216 RHOB to meet with Howard Osborn, [ ], OS, William Broe, IG, and [ ] Secretary to General Walters. Slatinshek told me the Committee would meet first with [ ] for just a few questions and then would release her. It was requested that Osborn and Broe bring with them the appropriate regulations and directives outlining the functions and duties of their respective offices. It was also mentioned that an attempt had been made to contact Ambassador Helms but that the Committee was advised that he left the city last evening.

25X1 16. [ ] Jack Maury, Howard Osborn, D/S, and 25X1A [ ] met with Chairman Nedzi, Intelligence Subcommittee of House
Armed Services Committee, and reviewed with him the letters and notes received during the period of July 1972 through January 1973 from [ ]
STATOTHR [ ] Chairman Nedzi was somewhat perturbed that these items had STATOTHR not been reported in previous meetings before the Committee and reviewed the circumstances in some detail with Osborn. In conclusion he said it would be necessary to discuss the matter with Chairman Hebert, of the full Committee, and that it would be his request that the various persons having knowledge of the matter appear before the Committee possibly as early as this afternoon or tomorrow.

25X1 17. [ ] Delivered copies of the Cushman memoranda to Houston of 21 May together with the attachments innumeraed therein to Bill Hogan, House Armed Services Committee staff, and Ralph Preston, House Appropriations Committee staff, Hogan noted that General Reid, Marine Corps Legislative Liaison, had delivered a copy of the basic Cushman memorandum to the Committee without the attachments the first thing this morning.
